READING SECTION

Q1. A. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

One Sunday, Neha went to her grandmother's house with her parents. Her grandmother lived in a small village surrounded by green fields. Early in the morning, Neha woke up to the sound of birds. She helped her grandmother feed the cows and collect fresh vegetables from the garden. Later, Neha sat under a big tree and listened to her grandmother's stories. In the afternoon, she played with village children and learned new games. Before returning home, Neha thanked her grandmother and promised to visit again. The day was special for Neha because she learned to love nature and family.

Questions

- A. Answer the following:
- B. Where did Neha go on Sunday?
- C. What woke Neha up in the morning?
- D. Name two things Neha helped her grandmother with.
- E. What did Neha do under the big tree?
- F. Why was the day special for Neha?

B. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Every morning, Aarav woke up early and got ready for school. He packed his bag neatly and wore his clean uniform. Before leaving, he drank a glass of milk and wished his parents goodbye. On the way to school, Aarav saw shopkeepers opening their shops and children waiting for the school bus.

At school, Aarav listened carefully to his teachers and completed his work on time. During recess, he shared his lunch with his friends and played games in the playground. After school, Aarav returned home and finished his homework. In the evening, he watered the plants and helped his mother. Aarav felt happy because he followed a good routine every day.

Questions

- A. Answer the following:

What did Aarav do before leaving for school?
What did Aarav see on the way to school?
How did Aarav behave in school?

What did Aarav do during recess?
